

From: Milan Ilic [REDACTED]
Sent: 21 August 2017 10:46
To: Ext PlanningPolicy
Subject: Great dalby new housing

As a resident of great dalby for the past 33 years and the landlord of the Royal Oak, I totally support the building of 37 new houses off Burdetts Close. The village as a community will die and the pub will close, as a lot of country pubs have already done so. Times have changed and new housing in villages is a must if the communities are to survive.

Landlord, Royal Oak